

Please delay any decisions regarding broadcast ownership until there has been a vigorous public debate. I am opposed to further consolidation of media ownership. As it is, we have very few sources of news and entertainment. Consolidating media ownership further will erode our basic right to a free press and limit public discourse and access to information. This consolidation will only bring us one step closer to dictatorship and away from the freedom that this country is all about.